THE STORY

THIS IS COAST OLIVE WOOD COLLECTION

Our 'Coast' design is a textured wall panel made from reclaimed Olive Wood. Wood from the olive tree is a hard wood and has a splendid grain.

This wood from the olive tree is excellent wood. The core of the trunk is a creamy-brown colour, with dark or black streaks. The grain can be wavy, burl or wild. The texture is fine and uniform with a natural lustre.

OLIVE WOOD OVERSTOCK

THE OLIVE WOOD COLLECTION

As an important economic resource in their countries of origin (olive oil!), it is forbidden to cut down olive trees. Only when the olive tree has stopped yielding fruit and when the department of Agriculture has granted permission, can a tree be felled. This means most trees are well over 150 years old before being turned into a high-end piece of furniture.

Up until then however, all trees are pruned. Pruning stimulates growth and increases fruit yield. Due the fact that olive farmers prune their trees in their own specific manner, height, girth and grain vary depending on the source.
